PREZ NOTES

Hello Members,

Although it may not seem so with the snow and ice lately, spring is approaching and with it some deadlines and upcoming events. We will not be holding a general meeting in March due to the health clinic date being during the same week so please try to attend the health clinic and help out those that are working overtime on this event. The clinic is a big support effort for this club, Jennifer has worked very hard on the organization and there is always a need for extra hands to keep things moving. Also it is a great opportunity to update necessary health checks on our dogs so take advantage of the chance to have these critical tests done locally and on a weekend which is always a plus!

Puppy match planning is progressing, Chris Kofron is the chairperson and Lori Bentine is co-chair so they will be contacting members to volunteer for jobs. They are planning our annual picnic following the match for some time to socialize; the match is a good chance to meet new people with an interest in conformation, a chance for novices to get started and as always, the opportunity to train our youngsters for their future show careers.

Specialty 2008 plans are moving forward, I have requested permission from the LRC, Inc. to hold the specialty and supported entries and when that is approved the AKC application can be submitted.

The main change from 2007 will be the hospitality, lunch is not an option this year and Deb Lewis has volunteered to help with the revision of that section toward something in accordance with the fairgrounds rules.

Jan is working on sponsorships for various classes so please contact her if you are interested. The main change from 2007 will be the hospitality, lunch is not an option this year and Deb Lewis has volunteered to help with the revision of that section toward something in accordance with the fairgrounds rules.

We have had some good suggestions for speakers at upcoming meetings so check future newsletters for information on speakers. Also, I would like to thank Steve LaVelle for his efforts in publishing the newsletter for the past several years, it is a huge job and his participation is much appreciated. Christine Nickerson has agreed to take over the newsletter editor position starting with the April publication so let's help her out by submitting interesting articles or information that can be shared. I am looking forward to seeing everyone at the health clinic. ~Linda
