PREZ NOTES

I want to start out by saying that I am sorry for this shortened edition of Unleashed. I have been extremely busy these last few weeks. I think that maybe I shouldn't have retired. It seems I had more time when I worked full time rather than 4 part time jobs.

I will be doing some military duty during the month of May so hopefully Linda Bednarski will be able to ride herd over the May meeting (be nice to her.) I am sure she will have an update for you regarding the upcoming Specialty and more details on the 2007 show as well. At the April meeting the membership decided to make the 2007 show a three day event. The first day will be the Specialty and also give us a taste of doing a show on our own. Don't forget, this is where we would like to get to in the future as a club. Days 2 & 3 will be Supported Entries.

Please don't forget about the B-OB Match to be held on May 7, 2006 at Blendon Woods Park. Be sure to bring the side dish you signed up for at the April meeting. Most of all, don't forget your items for the yard sale. All proceeds from this event go to the club. Check with Christian if you have any questions.

I need some thoughts on future meeting sites and speaker/program ideas. This is your club, so please provide me with some input so that we can have educational and enjoyable meetings.

Steve
